

Danish Japanese Water and Climate workshop and field trip 9-10th September 2010

Stockholm Event:

2nd JWF-DWF Water Workshop

Day & Time: 10:00-13:30, on Thursday, the 9th of September

Venue: Stockholm Hotel Oden, next to World Water Week conference facilities (tbc)

Theme: "Water management in cities under Climate Change"

Time	Topic	Proposed Speaker
10.00 – 10.15	Opening of the workshop	Palle Lindgaard-Jørgensen, Vice-Chair DWF and Tomoo Inoue, Director, JWF
10.15-10.35	Key note: Water management challenges of and good practices in Denmark	Professor Karsten Arnbjerg, Danish Technical University or Hans Enggrob, DHI
10.35-10.55	Key note: Key note: Water management challenges and good practices in Japan	Prof. Tadashi Yamada, Chuo University
10.55-11.10	Intelligent management of urban storm water	Hans Enggrob, DHI
11.10-11.25	Urban storm water management practices	Mr. Masato Toyama, General Manager, International Business Division, Corporate Planning Department, CTI Engineering, Co. Ltd.
11.25- 11.40	Coffee break
11.40-11.55	Fast cleaning methods of stormwater	Mr. Takehiko Kawai, Secretary-General, Japan Sanitation Consortium
11.55-12.10	Water supply and groundwater management	Prof. Tsuguhiro Watanabe, Research Institute for Humanity and Nature
12.10-12.25	Danida – water management and climate adaptation activities	Mr. Kurt Mørch Jensen, Danida
12.25-12.40	JICA- water and climate adaptation activities	Mr. Fumihiko Okiura, Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA)

12.40-13.20	Research needs and Possibilities of cooperation	Facilitated discussion
13.20-13.30	Closure	Palle Lindgaard-Jørgensen, Vice-Chair DWF and Tomoo Inoue, Director, JWF

Participants:

(Japanese side)

Prof. Tadashi Yamada, Chuo University [Hydrology and hydraulics]

Prof. Tsuguhiro Watanabe, Research Institute for Humanity and Nature [Irrigation and Groundwater]

Dr. Aysun Uyar, Assistant Professor, Research Institute for Humanity and Nature

Dr. Takashi Kume, Senior Project Researcher, Research Institute for Humanity and Nature

Mr. Takehiko Kawai, Secretary-General, Japan Sanitation Consortium (JSC) [Sewage system]

Mr. Masato Toyama, General Manager, International Business Division, Corporate Planning Department, CTI Engineering, Co. Ltd.

Mr. Tomoo Inoue, Director, Japan Water Forum

Ms. Noriko Yamaguchi, Director, Japan Water Forum

Ms. Shinobu Fukumoto, Manager, Japan Water Forum

(Danish side)

Kurt Mørch Jensen, Danish Ministry of Foreign Affairs

Palle Lindgaard Jørgensen, DHI and Danish Water Forum

Karsten Arnbjerg, Danish Technical University (tbc)

Hans Enggrob, DHI,

DWF are in contact with potential additional participants and speakers

Copenhagen field visit arrangement:

DWF and DHI will plan for an excursion in the greater Copenhagen Area for the 10 September. Optional dinner in the evening. Plan for the visit:

Time	Topic	Venue	Presenter
09.00	Integration of water in urban planning	Ørestad, new residential and commercial area in Copenhagen	Jesper Dannisøe, DHI or Marina Bergen-Jensen, KVL (tbc)
10.30	Coastline Management and Water for recreation	Amager Beach Park	Karsten Mangor, DHI (tbc)
12.00	Urban Water and Water Quality Management	Lunch at café new Copenhagen Harbour Bath	Municipality of Copenhagen (tbc)
13.00	Linking climate change, rainwater management and construction of new settlements	Green Roofs at Northern Harbour (Nordhavn)	Representative of Centre for Park and Nature, Municipality of Copenhagen
14.30	Implementation of Water Framework Directive in Denmark	Agency for Nature and Spatial Planning	Inger Bergmann, Head of Department, BLST (tbc)
19.00	Optional Dinner

Participants in Denmark:

Prof. Tadashi Yamada, Chuo University [Hydrology and hydraulics] (+ his wife)

Mr. Masato Toyama, General Manager, International Business Division, Corporate Planning Department, CTI Engineering, Co. Ltd.

Mr. Tomoo Inoue, Director, Japan Water Forum

Mr. Fumihiko Okiura from JICA is going to Denmark to join field trip around Copenhagen, by accompanying his colleague. Mr. Toyama

And eventually

Mr. Takehiko Kawai, Secretary-General, Japan Sanitation Consortium (JSC) [Sewage system]

Logistics:

Japanese participants plan to get on the following flight: SAS/SK1427 Stockholm (20:20) - Copenhagen (21:30) , Thursday, the 9th of September